Together we can END homelessness!

Apply For Homelessness Supports Service Funding

The Comox Valley Regional District (CVRD) is providing up to $255,000 in funding for initiatives that support community members currently experiencing homelessness and/or help prevent homelessness in the Comox Valley. Funding is offered by the CVRD with distribution support from the Coalition to End Homelessness.

This year, applications are open to all non-government organizations. Initiatives must be delivered within the Comox Valley, and applications that include partnerships between organizations are encouraged.

Applications are open until noon on January 20, 2026. To download the funding application, learn more, and review eligible and ineligible initiative criteria, visit: comoxvalleyrd.ca/hss
