National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, September 30

The Comox Valley Regional District (CVRD) and other local governments will be closing their facilities to commemorate National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day – Every Child Matters, on September 30.

It is a time for us to acknowledge, remember, and honour Residential School Survivors, and the lives of those children who did not come home. It is a day to raise awareness of the traumatic legacy of this system. Show your support by attending a local event, wearing orange, accessing learning resources or joining the conversation with family and friends about how to be an ally. Together, we can make a lasting difference, one that ripples far beyond today.

It is with gratitude and appreciation the CVRD has permission to use the Every Child Matters design by K'ómoks First Nation artist Andy Everson. At the artist's request of adding the component of "giving back," the CVRD has made a donation to the Indian Residential School Survivors Society in lieu of payment.
