

Census Population of the Comox Valley

In 2016, the census population of Comox Valley was 66,527, an increase of 4.7 per cent from 2011. Of this number, 34.8 per cent (23,147) live in K'ómoks First Nation and electoral areas, and the remaining 65.2 per cent (43,380) live in municipalities.

Census Population of Member Municipalities

	1981*	1986	1991	1996	2001	2006	2011	2016	% Change from 2011-16
Courtenay	8,950	9,631	11,652	17,335	18,304	21,940	24,099	25,599	6.2%
Comox	6,607	6,873	8,253	11,069	11,172	12,136	13,627	14,028	2.9%
Cumberland	1,954	1,853	2,220	2,548	2,618	2,762	3,398	3,753	10.4%

Population Changes in CVRD Member Municipalities

* Please note that local government boundaries evolve over time, which has some effects on census population.

Census Population of Electoral Areas

	2001	2006	2011	2016	% Change from 2011-16
Electoral Area A	4,780	4,885	6,899	7,213	4.6%
Electoral Area B	7,941	7,219	6,939	7,095	2.2%
Electoral Area C	7,584	7,441	8,325	8,617	3.5%

Population Changes in CVRD Electoral Areas

** In 2008, Comox Strathcona Regional District was restructured into two: Comox Valley Regional District and Strathcona Regional District. Since then, Denman and Hornby Islands have become part of Electoral Area A.

Census Population of K'ómoks First Nation

	1986	1991	1996	2001	2006	2011	2016	% Change from 2011-16
K'ómoks First Nation	160	211	214	254	272	251	222	-11.6%

Population Changes in K'ómoks First Nation

Data is from BC Stats, which offers Census of Population from Statistics Canada. To download the 2016 census data from BC Stats, visit <http://www.bcstats.gov.bc.ca/StatisticsBySubject/Census/2016Census.aspx>.